♡ Dear Zachy Farms: ♡

Well the year is coming to and and and I know your going to miss me during the summer but never the less life goes on with me or without me. But as everyone knows we will be ruling next year when we are sophmore even though we're under-lower classmen.

But always remember I'll always be your

Sister Joann finds time to teach Chemistry.

One of Sr. Joann's objectives was to get parents more involved with their daughter's education.

Administration

After the many years that Conaty's firm walls, windows and doors have been here they continue to stand erect and proud. Who, along with the students continues to promote academic progress? The administration, often behind the scenes, very warm, giving and devoted actualizers continue to strive for the present fulfillment of the Conaty dream.

Sister Joann Bauer, Principal 1984-5.

Sr. Joann discusses future activities with members of the Parish Committee.

Sister Suzanne Marie Soppe,
Vice-Principal

Administration

Among the congested schedules of academic programming, school policies, disciplinary regulations and supervision of the entire school, they have time to share of themselves with the students and to get involved in the activities planned by students. This proves that in order for Conaty to survive many more years these four administrators have to let the youth in them rejoice with the youth of Conaty today.

Sister Harriet Stellern, Dean of Studies

Sister Suzanne helps Seniors in career and educational counseling.

A caring Sister Suzanne always tries to keep in touch with student needs.

Sister Harriet is in charge of all academic scheduling.

Sister Harriet applies the decorative touch before the Welcome Dance.

Business

Sister Patricia Lang, Business, Religion

Sr. Pat, chairperson of the Business Department, along with Mrs. Hale and Sr. Helen are helping prepare the students in the future world of business with skills like Typing, Accounting, and Speedwriting. These skills are not only useful for the business world, but also for everyday living. They are extremely helpful in many careers and makes college life easier. Business skills are a necessity to function in today's competitive society.

Sr. Pat takes role as the students await the start of another school day.

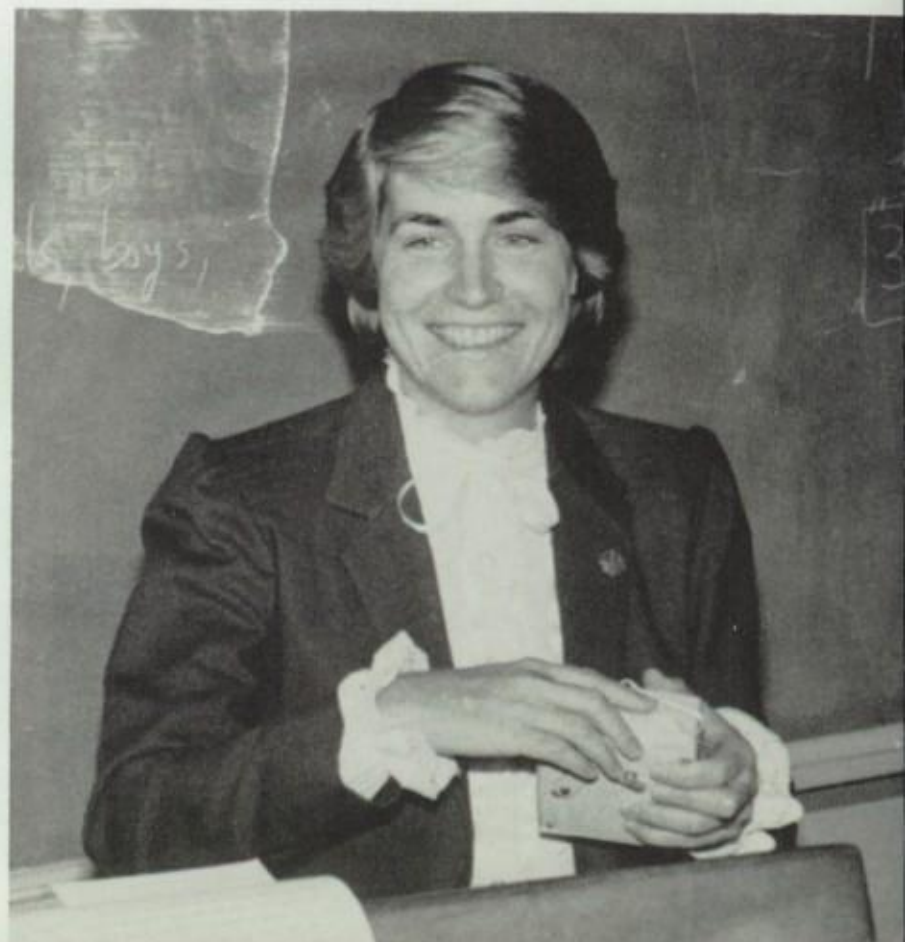

An overseer of many busy fingers.

Sister Pat and Sister Helen discuss last minute arrangements before a rally.

Sr. Pat sets the timer to start another speed drill.

Ms. Sharron Dean, Social Studies, English

Social Studies

In today's ever changing world, the field of Social Studies takes on an increasingly important role in the high school life. In order for an individual to make decisions on a personal level, she must be aware of the long-term trends dictating social change. With a contemporary viewpoint in mind, the Social Studies Program supplies the Conaty student with a background in United States History and American Government, as well as a chance to appreciate the diversity of human existence as it manifests itself in the many world cultures.

Ms. Alice Gandara, Social Studies, Math

Ms. Dean Lends Liz Velasquez a helping hand.

Ms. Dean teaches upper division American Government and Psychology.

Ms. Dean was instrumental in coaching the Cheerleaders this year.

A friendly Ms. Dean fit right in with the veteran faculty members.

Ms. Cynthia Berg, English

Ms. Berg joins in with an anonymous friend and Kim Arnold in Senior class spirit.

English

"Man's greatest invention is language. It is man's finest, strongest weapon, deepest resource, largest hope."

Since each person possesses this magical gift of language each person has the potential to develop it and use it well throughout life. This is one of the main objectives of the English Department, to nurture the students to develop this potential.

The way the English Department is accomplishing their goal is by promoting the knowledge of basic skills in underclass courses to literature which offer the students an opportunity to absorb expressions from varied literature and to express ideas, impressions and feelings in correct and proper writing styles.

Ms. Diane James, English

This year the faculty really got into the Halloween Activity.

Ms. James is head of the Humanities Department.

Sister Kathleen was the Junior Class Moderator for 1984-5.

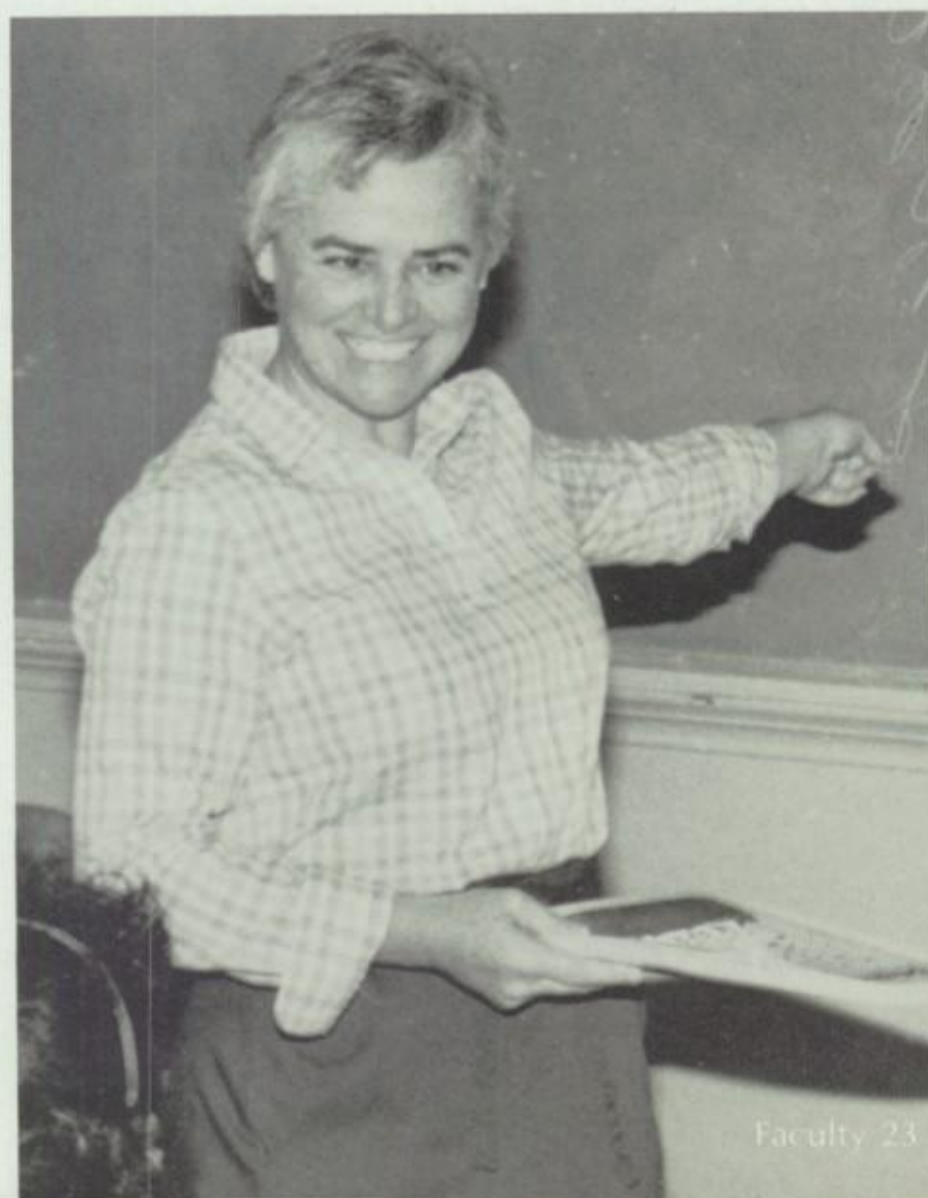

Sister Kathleen worked very hard to assure the success of the Ring Ceremony.

Sister Kathleen Kinney, English, Religion.

*My dear Jackie
You have been a pleasure.
I hope to have you again next year. God bless and keep you close.
Love, Sister Kathleen*

Sister Kathleen shares her usual good sense of humor with her class.

Ms. Elgar is always available when you need help.

Science

What is life? How does life begin and exist? These are among the many questions the Science Department strives to answer. The chemical equations of Chemistry and the dissections in Biology along with the Science alternatives offer the students an opportunity to become aware of the environment-and changes in this technological age.

A quick review by Elvia Basaca before a Math test.

Ms. Emma Elgar, Math

Ms. Mely Belviz can dance as well as teaching Math and Science.

Ms. Elgar prepares a Geometry lesson.

Mathematics

Geometry, Algebra, and Trigonometry; just a few of the Math courses in Conaty's curriculum. Some people may ask, "What good is Math?" There are many advantages to be derived from this field. Examples are high paying jobs in the fields of accounting and data processing. There are also positions in engineering and architecture. People who take Math learn to use their mind to its fullest potential. They learn to think quickly and make judgements accurately.

Father Anthony Page, Chaplain, Math, Religion

Father Page and Sister Helen Claire distribute Communion during the Christmas Liturgy.

Bishop Conaty High School is very lucky to have a priest in residence.

Liturgies at Bishop Conaty stress student involvement.

Religion

Spiritual development and moral growth are the centerposts of any Catholic High School. At Bishop Conaty every student is given the opportunity to explore her own spiritual being. Freshmen and Sophomores years are dedicated to Bible study and an indepth look into the personage of Jesus. The upper division years specialize and branch out into a myriad of topics. Girls have the option of studying Life After Life, Believing, Christian Lifestyles, and contemporary moral problems. The Religious Studies Program offers every student an opportunity to learn to live as Christ did.

Sister Beatrice Garcia, Religion, Campus Ministry

Sr. Bea handles an awesome schedule with a perpetual smile.

Ms. Berg and Sr. Bea moderated the Senior Retreat.

Fr. Page and Sr. Bea relax at the Mercy Convent.

Sr. Bea takes role quickly before leaving for an important meeting.

Sr. Helen caught in a moment of sheer surprise.

Sr. Helen Claire's years of experience assures the quality of Conaty's Library.

Mr. Vlaco has been a Eucharistic Minister at Conaty for seven years.

Sister Helen Claire Nagy, Religion, Librarian

*Dear Jackie,
Have a great summer, and may you be always close to God. See you in Sept!
Sister Helen Claire*

Sr. Pat's vitality has been a welcome addition to the Religion Department.

Mr. Vlaco reviews next week's lesson plans for Values and Morality.

Ms. Georgina
Montero, Spanish,
Social Studies

Language

In our multi-cultured society knowing at least two languages has many advantages. By taking Spanish you can better understand the cultural heritage of Southern California. Also, knowing two languages is an impressive addition to your job resume. By taking French, you get a better understanding of English and Spanish. Besides learning the language, students explore the customs and traditions of foreign cultures.

Ms. Montero shows her sense of humor with a funny face.

Ms. Montero lends a helping hand in Spanish Class.

Students funnel down the stairs to the Language wing.

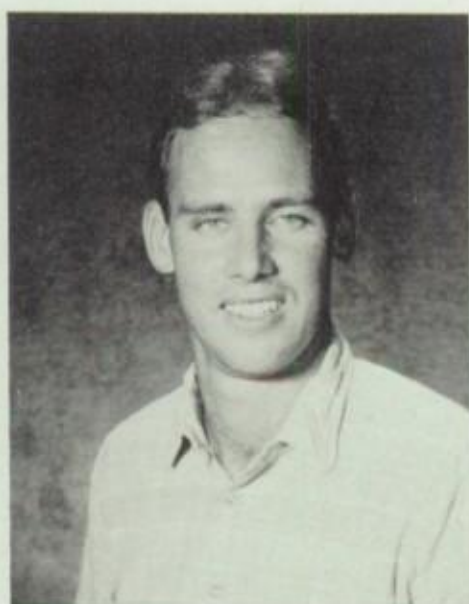

Sister Peter Marie was the Dean of Discipline as well as teaching Spanish.

Sister Maura is the guiding light of the Reading Program.

Mr. William Vlaco, Reading Religion.

Sister Maura Owens, Reading, Social Studies.

Mr. Vlaco runs off some handouts for reading class.

Sister Maura keeps order during a rally.

Ms. Laura Hale, Business, Physical Education.

Ms. Chambers heads for the auditorium to work on basketball techniques with her students.

Ms. Hale was a real "cutie" during Halloween.

Freshmen P.E. looks active and ready to go.

Ms. Jan Chambers, Physical Education.

Physical Ed.

The Physical Education Program is headed by Ms. Chambers. The Freshmen and Sophomores are taught the fundamentals of volleyball, basketball, football, baseball, and soccer. With all the laps, exercise and games, Bishop Conaty has the most radiant girls in town because P.E. tones the body. Learning the do's and don't of P.E. is only part of what goes on in this department. Combined with these sports, the girls learn First Aid and Driver's Education.

Sister Mary Ann Martini, Attendance

Front Office

An organization of only as good as its people up front. Bishop Conaty has been blessed in this aspect because of its wonderfully efficient team of office workers. Sr. Mary Ann Martini, Mrs. Gloria Ledesma, and Mr. Romy Torres handle the multitude of paperwork, business transactions, mailing, and money collection that keeps Bishop Conaty running. The trio does its work well, and always with a smile.

Mrs. Floria Ledesma, Secretary

Mr. Romy Torres, Bookkeeper

Mrs. Ledesma types up a student handout in Spanish.

Sr. Ann prides herself in accurate recordkeeping.

We began our growth four years ago,
as freshmen with simple ideals,
coming to a situation unknown to us,
young women out before the world,
in center stage, all eyes on us,
looking forward to what was to come.

All these years we've hoped for things of which we could not speak.

We ran hard, giving it our best.

At times we ran alone,
as we hungered for life.

Other times we held together,
a force with which to reckon.

We seek to share the good given us with others: our ideals, determination, strength, abilities, friendship, joy and happiness.

Now our time has come.

Our time to show what we are truly made of,
to speak up for what we believe, to be ourselves,
the people into whom we've grown.

With four years of growth behind, we start again.
We go out facing a new world, seeking new friends,
and the fulfillment of our ideals.

But not forgetting our past: the good,
the humorous, the true, "The Jaguars."

Clubs

Fine Arts Club 1984-5

Fine Arts

When the Home Economics Club changed its name, it became something totally original. Now the members have a chance to experience many new things. Throughout the year the club did exciting things like cooking, having sales, attending Jimmys (night court), and viewing plays. At the end of the year, as a reward for achieving their goals, the Fine Arts Club had a banquet. All the members received their club pins to wear proudly.

Our appreciation of cultural music and dance traditions was greatly enhanced by the Korean Dancers.

Library Club of 1984-5

Library

The Library Club of Bishop Conaty High School is made up of capable young women who successfully bring about an atmosphere of knowledge, concentration, and learning. Aided by our moderator Sister Helen Clare, girls of this enriching organization assist their fellow students with checking out books at the desk, arranging library cards, and answering a variety of questions. The kind of family spirit and dedication instilled in the Library Club add to the endurance and stability always so apparent.

Carolina Palos, Lety Loya, and Lupe Trevizo take advantage of the Library's sedate atmosphere.

Girl's Athletic Association

Conaty students, with an abundance of enthusiasm and supportiveness, for the sports program, earn the honor of being members of the Girls Athletic Association. This elite group of girls are easy to spot. They attend home games and take pride in our teams whether they win or lose. GAA members are responsible for the pride that flows from them to the rest of the Conaty family. GAA can be considered the heart of Conaty's spirit and pride.

Gladys Garcia and Cathy Lugo started the year by selling spirit flags.

Student Government

Student Government

We, the student body officers, are here to help and serve the needs of all our fellow students here at Bishop Conaty High School. Although many of our desires were not granted, we have the pride of saying that we tried. The officers spend extra time everyday in the morning and after school planning different activities for our school. With the help of student government, we successfully accomplished many school activities. We really hope that the student body enjoyed the interesting year we had; we want to let the whole student body know that we tried our best to fulfill your wishes and desires, but unfortunately we can't get everything we want. Thanks to all who helped us throughout the year.

A.S.B. Officers lay out the details for a lunch time meeting.

for 1984-5

A charming and vibrant Maria Ortiz demonstrated her leadership skills as A.S.B. President for 1984-5.

Cheerleaders for 1984-5: Moderator Ms. Sharron Dean, Cecilia Paredes, Susana Sanchez, Norliza Sotelo, Isabel Valentin, Czarina de Leon, Joy Cortina, Rosa Guerra.

Hardworking Moderator Ms. Sharron Dean molded our cheerleaders into a closeknit performing unit.

Cheerleaders

After somewhat of a dormant state in the past few years, the Pep Club has undergone a tremendous renovation. This year's Bishop Conaty Cheerleaders worked many long and hard hours to bring out the school spirit within the student body. Under the true leadership of Moderator, Ms. Sharron Dean, we were put through discipline, the essence of Jaguar spirit.

Susana Sanchez, Isabel Valentin, and Czarina de Leon used their gymnastic talents to promote school spirit.

With a blur of motion, the Cheerleaders start their next routine.

The Conaty Care Unit Club is composed of sixty caring members who give up their leisure time to be of assistance to the school and to the community. Through out the school year we have such activities as the food drive, blood drive with Loyola High School, candy gram sale, Easter egg hunt, The LatchKey Program, and fundraisers. These activities help bring about the spirit of caring (the heart of our club) for the needs of people around us.

Yearbook

Freshmen initiation, liturgies, classes, assemblies, friends, the green and all that goes on within the walls of Conaty. All these people and events contribute to the many memories that will linger in our minds all our lives. Only through the lens of the camera, the copy and pictures is it possible to capture the spirit and life of a year at Conaty. The group that sets out to capture these exciting moments is the Yearbook Staff.

Activities! Activities!

On September 21, 1984 one of Conaty's most favored traditions, especially by the Seniors, took place, Freshmen welcome. Both classes 85 and 88 seem so excited. The reason for this tradition is so these members of Conaty can feel more accepted into our family. Both classes established bonds of friendship forever.

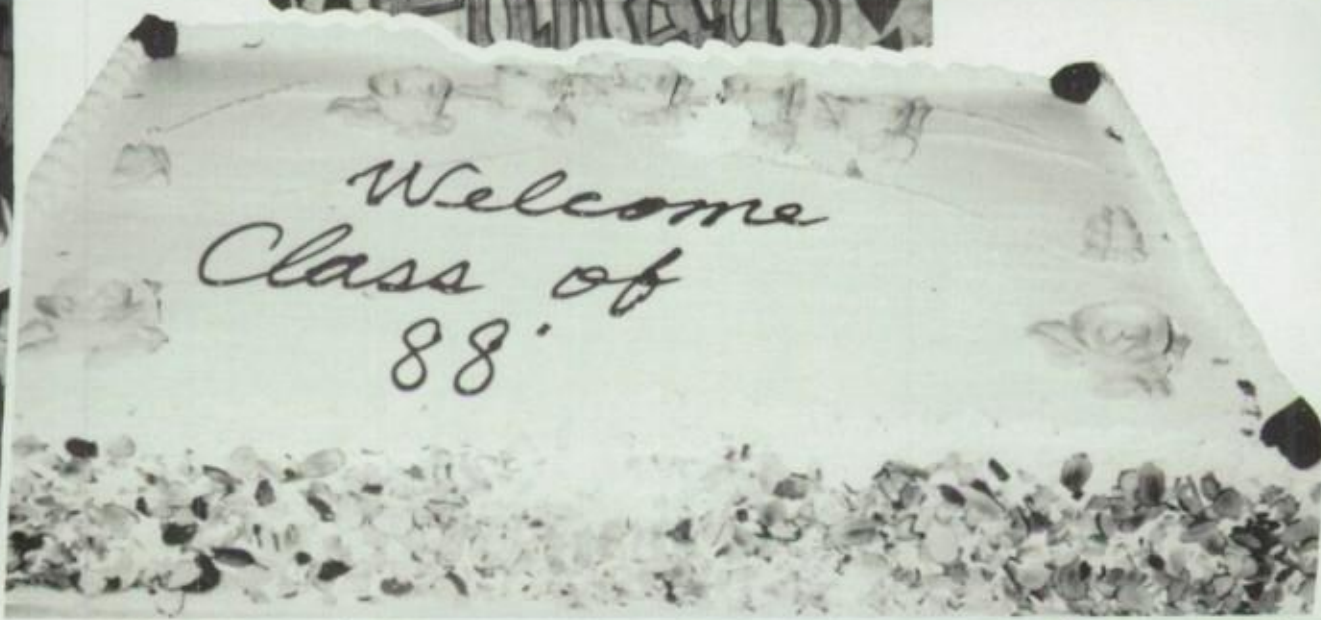

This year, thanks to all the classes hard selling of chocolates, the chocolate drive was a total success. Our rally displayed unity among the classes in which the Sophomores stood out and won the rally as "most spirited."

This year the faculty played a big role in the Halloween activity. All students showed creativity and uniqueness. One of the most honored traditions for the Juniors is the ring ceremony. All the Juniors were so excited and couldn't wait for the big day to arrive. They received their rings on November 16, 1984 and officially became upperclassmen.

Our Liturgies found ourselves uniting the Conaty family. For the freshmen, it was a new experience, for the Sophomores and Juniors, it was a tradition, and for the Seniors the last Liturgies together which made them more significant.

The Senior Retreat was the highlight event of the Senior year. The girls shared days of reflections and growth. Sr. Bea and Mrs. Berg worked very hard and helped this different experience to be extra special. It also gave the class of 85 a final time to reflect on past years together and ask God's help in the future.

The Christmas activity was very meaningful for all students and Faculty. It was a time where the girls shared gifts, laughs, smiles, hugs, and some tears.

Miss Leticia Loya

Homecoming Honor For Bishop Conaty

On November 2, 1984 Salesian held their annual coronation dance. Leticia Loya was chosen as a representative for Bishop Conaty in their court, Letty recalls, "as I was escorted down the football field and soon stood on stage while being announced as one of Salesians runnerup princesses, I felt very honored and privileged to step aside and be recognized as a representative of both Bishop Conaty and Salesian." "I hope that in my representing both schools our communication will continue to exist as it has in the past." "I would like to thank the Salesian family for giving me the opportunity to share in their spirit and making my senior year a special and memorable one." "I would also like to take the time to give special thanks to those who made one of my many dreams come true." "Roses, Carnations, and corsages soon wilt, but the love, warmth, and support that the Conaty family, friends, teachers, and especially the administration offered me, will always be fresh in my heart.

Thank You,
Leticia Loya

A large, stylized graphic of a triangle composed of the word 'ADVERTISING' repeated many times, set against a dark, starry background. The word 'ADVERTISING' is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The letters are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with each row of the triangle containing more words than the row above it. The background is black with numerous small white dots representing stars. A bright, multi-pointed starburst is visible on the left side of the image. The overall composition is symmetrical and visually striking.

To my friends:

Thank you for the wonderful memories you have given me. Even though we will go our separate ways I will never forget you. Deanna and Letty High School wouldn't have been the same without you. Alicia & Beatriz, you were the best little sisters. Good luck.

Mr. Kason- The memories we have shared are more than words can say. Most of all, I do recall the love and fun we shared. Although you weren't here my Senior year, the 2 years we shared made up for it. THANK YOU AND I WANT YOU TO KNOW I'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU.

Mom & Dad:

There are no words to express my love and gratitude for all you've done for me. I love you very much and will never be able to pay you back. I am very fortunate in having both of you as my parents. I want to thank you for giving me everything I've ever wanted. Dolores, Cecy & Oscar, I finally made it and you guys are the ones to thank. You have helped me through all of my growing pains. Together we have shared many happy and sad memories but we're still holding strong. I love you all and I know Love will keep us together!!

A quick note to thank a few friends:

Adriana S., Letty A. and the rest of Hope's little group for bringing out the wild and crazy side of me. Hope, Cathy, Red, and Chela U. for being my favorite managers and for helping me get over a certain senior. Liz F. who was always there to listen to my complaints and problems, Ceci R. who has always "Bailed" me out when it came to "Incomplete" homeworks and showing that she cared, and Jenny G. who's been such a terrific little sister. Also, Rachel B. for helping me realize that it's not easy losing a friend, especially when it's her and for being my favorite senior. Christine and Velia who were always there ready to listen and were wo reliable, my little group for some of the craziest lunch times we spent together, and the basketball team for making practices and games so fun and memorable. Linda and Isabel for being so understanding and the most memorable and craziest times spent with them. Last but not least, Carol and Tina still keeping in touch with me and for providing me "Lifetime Friendship." Thank you very much all of you and everyone else for showing me the real meaning of "friendship" and for being such an important and vital part of my sophomore year and of my life.

Love always,
Marissa "PeeWee" Cacal '87

DEAREST ROXANNE,
CONGRATULATIONS:: YOU DID IT!! We are so very proud of YOU! 12 years of hard work has paid off. It has been a real experience watching you grow from a wide-eyed, innocent little girl to the beautiful young lady that you have become.

You filled our lives with laughter and tears, but most important . . . LOVE. As you start your new life, always remember the Christian values you have learned. But it's OK if you have some fun once in a while! (Susie says so) Best of luck in everything you do.

This Poem is written for all the dear people that I'm proud to call my friends, all who I love dearly. This is my way of thanking you for your support. This is also for the people that have influenced and inspired me. So, "Thanks For Being You" and for being a part of my life.

Any person that has the ability to smile can make another persons day worth while, any person that has the ability to laugh can cut a persons long day in half, any person that has the ability to really live also has a heart and a half to give any person that has the ability to sing also has joy in themselves to bring any person that has the ability to cry doesn't have to cover up for their actions or lie, any person that has the ability to love is a person you often think of. Thanks for being you.

Love You Lots!

Quiero tomar este momento para darles las gracias por todo lo que han echo por mi. De lo mas profundo de mi corazon, quisiera agradecerles por las educacion que me han ofrecido, se que nunca podre pagarles por todo los que me han dado. Gracias por darme el aliento necsario para seguir adelante en mis dias mas dificiles. Pero, sobre todo, gracias por su constante AMOR.

To My Lil Sisters Lynn & Cathy R:

You've both taken a special place in my heart, and I want to take this moment to wish you the best of luck in the years to come of high school and in your life. I really enjoyed having you both as my little sisters. I will always have you both in my heart. Remember if you ever need a friend I'll always be here! Love ya

To My Dearest Buddies,

Rachel, Martha, Rosa, Jeanie, Kathy Moody, Cathy G., Maria O. Catherine, Carmen, Suzie, Roxanne, Deanna and Letty. Well the time to part has come, but not till we meet again! I want to take this moment to thank you all for being so nice, loving and understanding. Hopefully you will always remember the crazy and sad times we spent together! It is so hard to write my appreciation toward all of you, so all I'll say is that I Love You all and would like to wish you the best of luck in the years to come! You have all taken a special part in my heart and I will always remember you all!

I LOVE YOU ALOT
"Carol"

Dear David,

I want to take this time to thank you for being there when I needed you, especially for helping me get through my years of high school. Without you I would'nt have made it. Since you came into my life, you made me see the good and bad things of life. I hope that our love will continue to grow as the years pass. Even though we've been through our ups and downs, I want you to know that I LOVE YOU very much. May the love that we both share last forever and ever!

I LOVE YOU
"Carol"

Dear Carol,

I want to take this moment to tell you that I'm very proud of you for reaching one of your goals. Thank you for all the beautiful moments we've spent together and for the love, friendship, and trust we both have for each other. Hopefully as the years pass I will continue to be a part of you as you continue to reach some of your goals!

I Love You Always

Dear Jackie

Hey chick! What's up? As for me nothing much. Well, next year we're finally gonna be sophomores and its gonna be the sixth or seventh year that i've known you. What a trip huh? I never thought I would ever see you again. Remember when we were in the third grade and every girl in school was in love with Mario? That was a trip. Do you remember Sheila? Well, if you do she said to say "hello". She goes to Milikan Jr. High and Mario goes to school somewhere in Hollywood I think. To think Jackie... Remember when I used to go to your house and you used to come to mine and we used to eat raw noodles like that chick Jane did? Well we have a lot of memories to look back on and we may have a lot to look forward on. Well I'm not gonna say good-bye 'cause I'll most likely see you again next year if you plan on coming back to this school. But until then take care and be good!

Well Cous I'm happy that I met you this year because I don't know how I would go through this year, stay cool & crazy don't change because you are a special person just how you are, if you change I'll kill (TA!TA!TA!) you. Well Jackie I'm not a very good with writing things that I mean, I prefer to say them I don't know because if I mess up I can fix it and don't have to erase it so if I don't make any sense well I'll have to explain it to you then! Cous take care of yourself don't mess up, if you make a mistake well you are only human and not (man)! Sorry for a sloppy hand writing. If you need someone to talk to, call me okay.
